Product Recall Notice

Multi-plug adaptors and extension cord units

In terms of consumer safety, the Massmart Group of companies is notifying the public of a recall of multi-plug adaptors and extension cord units as listed hereunder.

Nature of hazard:

The incorrect insertion of a standard 3-pin plug into the socket of a multi-plug unit leaving any pin completely exposed to touch could create the potential for an electric shock.

As a precautionary measure, Massmart is advising our customers to check if they have purchased any of the mentioned products, with respective product codes listed below. The product codes can be found on the reverse side of the units.
